Isaiah 9:6

Today's verse is about a promise that God made long before Jesus was born in Bethlehem. The Lord told Isaiah that a child would be born, that He would be a mighty God, Everlasting Father and Prince of Peace. Now, thousands of years after God kept that promise, we celebrate Jesus' birth. It's a huge reminder to us that no matter what happens, we can have hope because God keeps His promises. Think about the last promise you made...did you keep it? _____ Why or Why not?

Spend some time thanking God for keeping His promises and ask him to help you be a promise keeper too.

WEDNESDAY

Joshua 21:45

What is a "promise"? A promise is to follow through with what you say you will or will not do.

Finish the sentences:

I promise I will not say _____ to my parent. I promise I will put away my _____ for a whole week. I promise I will not leave my _____ in the middle of my bedroom floor.

What's easier? To make a promise or to keep a promise? _____

Today's verse reminds us, God kept all the promises He made to His people, the Israelites. Even when the Israelites turned their back on God and tried over and over again to do their own thing. Still, God kept His promise and sent His Son, Jesus. That's why we can have hope...not just at Christmas, but every single day.
